

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

SUBJECT: When 5th Generation Warriors Partner with America's Deep State Globalists, Part III

- “If a dictator ever took charge in this country, the technological capacity that the intelligence community has given the government could enable it to impose total tyranny, and there would be no way to fight back.”
—Frank Church, 1975
- “The world won't be destroyed by those who do evil, but by those who watch them without doing anything.”
— Albert Einstein

Where Are HUAC and Senator McCarthy When We Need Them?

If readers have already read Big Intel, J. Michael Waller's book, the former CIA counterterrorism expert, they likely noticed the following: “As part of the United States Peace Council delegation, I met a Communist operative from California named Barbara Lee, then a congressional aide. She called herself “Comrade Barbara” Comrade Barbara is now a senior member of Congress.” Waller, p. 18. [Lee, a Democrat, currently serves in the US House of Representatives from California's 12th congressional district.]

Sadly, to answer the rhetorical question set out above, the House Judiciary Committee assumed the duties of the House Un-American Activities Committee; moreover, Senator “Tail Gunner Joe” McCarthy is still dead.

Waller continues on page 19 about a DIA (Defense Intelligence Agency!) analyst, an apparent ideological Communist spy, who passed American secrets to the Cuban government, adding, “She wasn't the only traitor. There were more in the FBI, CIA, and elsewhere. But the attitude at both the FBI and CIA in those years was one of smug invincibility. They believe themselves clever and careful....” Such hubris continues to manifest itself; particularly when high-level bureaucrats from these agencies testify before Congress.

Jim Kouri, Editor and Publicist at TCV Media, wrote this on 15 December 2019: “Former FBI Director James Comey admitted in a 2003 interview that he voted Communist before voting for Jimmy Carter in 1980. Comey added that he did not know how to classify himself politically. Former CIA Director John Brennan said that, in 1976, he voted for Gus Hall, the Communist Party candidate for President. This fact did not hinder him from becoming head of the CIA afterward [This will not be shocking to anyone who understands that there is no significant difference in the ideological beliefs of Communists, Fascists, Nazis, Socialists, and other variants of collectivism and that collectivism is the dominant ideology of both major political parties today.]” So much for the Uni-party.

Treason in the Highest Places

Waller also detailed an awkward moment when he met then-FBI Director Louis Freeh at a Christmas party. Waller could not figure out why Freeh was acting so distant and aloof. His discovery of why came later. At the party, Waller visited with an FBI agent named “Bob.” Agent “Bob” as it turned out, was Robert Philip Hanssen, a well-positioned Russian spy in the FBI.

For fifteen years, Hanssen had provided highly classified national security information to the Russians in exchange for more than $1.4 million in cash, bank funds, and diamonds. Just before attending the party, Freeh had learned agent “Bob” was the mole both the FBI and the CIA sought after the arrest of Aldrich Ames, the former CIA agent entrusted with discovering Soviet spies, who himself became one of the most successful double agents for the Soviet Union and its successor, the Russian Federation. Both agencies knew, following Ames’ arrest, that someone high in the intelligence community still actively supplied the Russians with sensitive classified material, particularly the identity of US spies.

Waller demonstrates, then, that the so-called fourth branch of government, the deep state, is populated with too many traitors in high places. Astoundingly, it appears the John Birch Society was right all along. The functional government of the United States was and currently is populated with Marxists, helping to explain the general tension and malaise inhabiting our nation’s zeitgeist.

How We Got Here

Recall prior memos discussing the talks Yuri Bezmenov, aka Tomas Schuman, gave in the 1980s throughout the US and Canada. Here’s a reminder as he fills in the blanks of how Khrushchev’s boast to the West in 1956, “We will bury you!”, would be carried out—very Sun Tzu-like, the one who laid the foundation for Fifth-Generation Warfare.

“The first stage of subversion is the process which is called basically ‘demoralization’. The word says for itself what it is. It takes from fifteen (15) to twenty (20) years to demoralize a society. Why 15 to 20 years? This is the time sufficient to educate one generation of students or children—one generation—one-lifetime span of a person—a human being—which is dedicated to study to shaping up the outlook ideology personality. No more, no less—usually it takes from 15 to 20 years.”

Bezmenov continues in his unique style of English, “What does it include? It includes influencing by various methods: infiltration, propaganda methods, direct contact—it doesn’t matter—of various areas where public opinion is formulated or shaped—religion; education system; social life; administration; law enforcement system; military; labor-employer relations; and economy.”

This goes far in explaining why sending our “normal” kids to college, provides the real possibility they will graduate as freshly-minted Marxists. This is how they typically find employment in a federal deep state agency more than eager to take them on. Frankly, this has been the pattern since the 1940s. It’s only recently become blatantly obvious to those who might not otherwise be expected to pay attention. Please start paying attention.
